executive proclamation

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

THE STATEHOUSE PIERRE, SOUTH DAKOTA

WHEREAS, Each winter one or more areas of the United States are confronted by severe winter storms, blizzards, or freezing weather and these storms are often accompanied by needless loss of life and extensive property damage; and,

WHEREAS, The number of lives lost and the amount of property damage can be reduced by common sense winter preparations; and,

WHEREAS, Such simple matters as not driving in heavy snow, or after an ice storm has occurred, and having an emergency plan in a household can reduce substantially the adverse effects of a severe winter; and,

WHEREAS, A number of state, local, private and federal agencies are attempting to inform and educate the public on steps that should be taken to prepare for this winter; and,

WHEREAS, By taking reasonable precautions the people of South Dakota can reduce adverse influences of winter on their daily lives, plus mitigate the effect of winter on the energy resources and our State's economy:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, December 14, 1978, as in South Dakota and authorize all appropriate State agencies to provide our people with warning and preparedness advice on a continuing basis throughout the 1978-1979 winter.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of December, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight
